Election/Restrictions

[1] Although the claims have been previously examined as a whole, Examiner makes the following restriction requirement, since the amendments made by the applicant places the different inventions into distinct classes and thereby creating an unreasonable burden during examination.

[2] Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6-13, 15-22 and 37-40 are drawn to subject verification, classified in class 382, subclass 118.
- II. Claims 14 and 41, drawn to image transmission, classified in class 358, subclass 402.
- III. Claims 23-36, drawn to image file management with GPS encoding, classified in class 348, subclass 231.2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

[3] Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I has separate utility in authentication of an individual for controlled access. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

[4] The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

[5] Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

[6] Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

[7] The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

[8] Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
